THE LAST PUNCH! ottawa to flay TORONTO TEAM FOR CANADIAN TITLE

Toronto Beaten in Tournament for Cornelius Fellowes Trophy.

The Ottawa seven had little trouble eating the Queens College team, 6 to 1, at St. Nicholas Elink and thereby earned the right to play Toronto to-night for the Cornelius Fellowes trophy, emblematic of the varsity hockey championship

The victors played the better game not only from the scoring point but from the hockey standpoint as well, although this was nothing to be overly proud of. Neither team showed the brand of hockey that was expected of it, the game oftentimes being of the "shinny" variety. Perhaps had Queens offered a more stubborn resistance it would have been a different story, but as it was the came did not rouse the crowd of spec-
